In the early morning hours of June 24, 2011 an off-duty officer was flagged down by a juvenile female a few blocks from the Law Enforcement Center. The off-duty officer stopped to check on the female, and she reported that she had just been sexually assaulted a few blocks away. She gave a description of the suspect, and the officer quickly relayed that information to patrol officers working the streets. Officer Brittany Martinez was able to locate the suspect who fled on foot when she attempted to contact him. A foot chase ensued, and officers of Patrol F Company were able to take the suspect into custody. The suspect had items on his person that he took from the juvenile after sexually assaulting her. Detectives with the Criminal Investigation Division were called to interview the suspect and process evidence collected by patrol officers. The suspect was identified as Billy Henderson Williams. After the investigation was finished, Williams was charged with Aggravated Sexual Assault of a Child and Robbery. He is currently being held in the Taylor County Jail on a bond of $325,000.
