On 08/02/11 at approximately 0153 hours, Abilene Police officers responded to 2041 Victoria St. for an injured subject call-shooting victim. Upon arrival, officers found a 23 year-old Hispanic male, later Identified as Alexander Rubio, in the street with one gunshot wound to the upper left chest area. Rubio stopped breathing for a moment and then started to breathe on his own again after officers performed CPR. He became responsive when he was transported to a local hospital for treatment. His condition is listed as critical at the time of the report. His next of kin was notified. There are no known suspect(s) at this time. The investigation into the shooting continues.
