On July 26, 2011 officers of the Abilene Police Department responded to assist the Irving Police Department with a homicide investigation. An abandoned vehicle which was believed to have been involved in the homicide was found parked in front of a retail business in Abilene. The Abilene Police Department assisted the Irving Police Department by taking temporary custody of the abandoned vehicle. On July 27, 2011, investigators from the Irving Police Department drove to Abilene and executed a search warrant on the abandoned vehicle. The vehicle was then towed back to Irving in the custody of the Irving Police Department. Investigators believe the suspect left Abilene after abandoning the vehicle.
